

Independent press reporting from newspapers, radio and TV stations is more important to protecting democracy than having huge corporations protecting their bottom line. You need to reverse this trend toward more media being held in the hands of fewer.

If you think the majority of Americans will put up with this continuing trend, you are mistaken. You have a responsibility to the American people, not to the ultra rich. Perform your obligations as servants to the People.